THE CAMP WAPOGAZETTE

JUNE 21ST-27TH

MOVIE EDITION

NOW SHOWING: VIRTUAL CAMP

A very intense scene from Camp Wapo's award winning summer 2019 Drama Worship.

Virtual camp is this summer's "Must-See Movie!" In this modern classic, Wapo, Ox, and Wilderness give phenomenal and fresh performances every week! One critic provided this glowing review, "There is something for everyone, every week, and the overall experience is surprisingly engaging despite the fact that it is primarily on a screen. I could see myself watching this movie 11-weeks straight this summer, however, I hope there isn't a sequel next year." Our journalist team couldn't agree more! So flip through this edition to get a preview of all the fun new scenes and activities this week!

Steph just graduated from the George Washington University. She studied International Affairs, speaks Russian, and is legally not allowed to talk about her career plans. Steph once dislocated her shoulder during a high-intensity game of Ninja... and still won. Goose #: 15

CHIP — WAPO TEAM LEAD, LIFEGUARD STORE COORDINATOR

Chip is 2020 graduate of Luther College and plans to start a career in social work. Chip is certain that he could catch a pass against former Vikings Cornerback Xavier Rhodes.

MEL — WAPO TEAM LEAD

RACHEL — WAPO TEAM LEAD ART SHOP COORDINATOR

Rachel is a student at Concordia University where she is studying to become a Math teacher. She enjoys reading books and doing arts and crafts. She is also the best tennis player at camp and she is always saying she is the strongest person at camp even though she is more like third or fourth... which is still pretty strong.

GOOD GLOBAL NEWS

CAMP WAPO. OX LAKE. WILDERNESS CANOE BASE.

BUCKLE UP! IT IS A DRIVE-IN RESURGENCE!

Right now, drive-ins are the best options for starved moviegoers, and there are 6 drive-ins operating at half capacity in Minnesota! Some movie studios have been hesitant to release new movies until they can be confident that they will make it in the box office; so drive-ins are creatively showing pre-pandemic blockbusters (e.g. “Jurassic World”, “Jumanji: The Next Level”, “Onward”) and vintage titles (e.g.. “Grease”, “Jaws”, “Jurassic Park”). Drive-ins offer the opportunities to bring in all the food you want, the space to play active games (spike-ball and catch), watch the sunset, and the privacy to sit with all your family and friends in or around your vehicle. Remember that the real fun begins at dusk when you get to cuddle up with a loved one, stay six feet away from strangers, and enjoy a movie in the great outdoors!

MML: TALKING NAMES AND TAKING TRASH

The season is well underway and the players' egos and confidence levels are beginning to swell. So lets dive into the gloating and shade of week three... In the first game of the week, RED team snuck away with a victory of over ORANGE team. Team captain Kellen was very vocal in the post-game interview exclaiming, "Anna and the rest of ORANGE team were out there playing Weakly Weakly, I'm embarrassed they thought they could test me." After being put in his place by Grace in week one, Kellen is going full steam ahead to make his MVP case.

The match between YELLOW team and GREEN team was just like the Green Bay Packers... ugly and not fun to watch. Both teams were sieves at the line, but YELLOW team was less leaky and came away with the win. Despite the win, Tim was visibly upset during the postgame interview but only said, "I'm just here so I don't get fined." Tim was later fined for saying the word "fined."

There were high tensions in the intense game between PURPLE team and MAGENTA team. The game was forced to pause when Cole and Cody got into a heated debate about who could fart louder. The argument is to be continued because both left the field with fart-related injuries. Ultimately, PURPLE team was victorious and remains the leagues only undefeated team.

BLUE team and BROWN team finished the week off with a mediocre match-up. We don't even want to tell about how mediocre it was because it was so mediocre you will regret reading the Sports section. BLUE team won.
