AUGUST 2ND - 8TH

FAITHFULL EDITION

A LEAP OF FAITH-FULL

Here at Camp Wapo... even when we can't play together, we can still pray together! This week the Wapogazette is focusing on being FAITHFULL, not just when it's easy, but even during hard times. It's easy to forget our FAITH when times are easy, and hard to feel FAITHFULL when times are hard, so what can we do to fix this? Maybe you are praying, or creating your own Bible study, or listening to or creating worship playlists. What is one way that YOU are staying FAITHFULL this summer? What is one way you can encourage your friends and family to be FAITHFULL this summer? There are millions of ways, so take a leap of FAITH and find them all! Stay tuned for some of our ideas!

What if I stumble?

What if I fall? What if I lose my step and I make fools of us all?

Will the love continue

When the walk becomes a crawl?

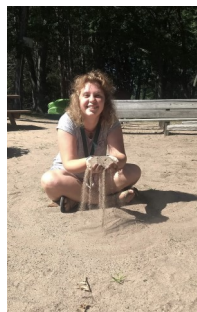

WHAT IF I STUMBLE?

Jesus, You're the lover of my soul

Jesus, You will never let me go

You've taken me from the miry clay

Set my feet upon the rock

Now I know

GOOD GLOBAL NEWS

DANCING ROBOTS AT JAPANESE BASEBALL GAMES

Recently, 20 robots performed a choreographed dance at a Japanese baseball game in hopes of inspiring the players and viewers. The dance is typically performed by the many fans at the game, but because of social distancing, the only spectators were 'Spot' (a dog-like robot) and "Pepper" (a human-like robot). There were mixed reactions on social media about the robots.

SUPERHERO COMIC WITH DISABILITIES

After her best friend was diagnosed with spinal muscular atrophy, Trinity Jagdeo set to work creating books that her friend could relate to. This meant writing about superheroes with disabilities! Trinity believes that people with disabilities should be better represented in the media. When large companies did not respond to her numerous letters, she took it into her own hands and published 3 books with main characters with disabilities.

SEMIFINALS: RAGS TO RICHES

The second round of the 2020 MML playoffs presented a message of hope to teams: no matter the odds, any team can win at any time. With the right strategy, clear eyes and full hearts can't lose. This week was the week of the underdog once again, and it was entirely evident in the way the MAGENTA team handled the first two weeks of the playoffs.

In the first game of the week, MAGENTA team pulled off another stunning upset in the playoffs against the RED team. Before this game, the hype surrounding the RED team was at an all time high. This was in part because Kellen showed a lot of confidence when he bleached his hair and exclaimed that they were going to take the championship trophy home. This cockiness was surely one of the ingredients in the cake of failure that the RED team was fed this weekend. In the game itself, RED team came out with an early lead, but MAGENTA scored just before half, which acted as a catalyst and got them going in the second half. In the second half it was Cody who truly came to play. On top of a lockdown performance of knocking things away from the line, he also grabbed three noodles. After the RED team relinquished their lead, Kellen and Michael gave it their all to get back in the game, but it just wasn't enough to overcome the fighting spirit summoned by the MAGENTA team.

On the other side of the bracket, the magic of Karl's return from retirement finally came to an end. BLUE team and BROWN team both came to play, playing an incredibly action packed and competitive game from the start, full of home runs, touchdowns, slam dunks, and even holes in one. Shawn and Karl went head to head chasing each other around the field and stealing items for their team. Grace and Mari formed a great tag team that gave Isaac a lot of trouble; likewise, Toby was a pain in the BLUE team's rear by constantly sneaking around the line to save his teammates. At the end of the day, BLUE team had just a little bit more oomph that allowed them to come away with the win.

The stage is now set for the championship game two weeks from now. This upcoming week off will do both teams wonders in terms of rest before the championship, and in the meantime it will be fun to see the league come together for the awards ceremony and a light-hearted all-star weekend.
